

'Twas the month before Christmas when all through the Spa -

All the workers were working - it was all so bizarre.

When all of a sudden just out the front door

A crowd from the neighbours appeared at our store,

"We need gifts from your Spa as Christmas is near -

For the feet for the hands, for the bodies so dear!

For family, for friends, for all on our list -

Please help us make sure that no one is missed!"

They were happy and jolly and went straight to the task,

Buying manicures, pedicures, massages and masques.

They whistled and shouted and called out to all

"We've finished our shopping and don't need the mall!"

And we heard them exclaim as they drove out of sight -

"Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night!"
